CGR Prepared to Defend Series Championships

Levittown, PA, February 25, 2010 Crush Grafix Racing renews partnerships and roster for 2010 Supermoto season.

Following a successful 2009 season, Crush Grafix Racing returns to the ESMRA and ENAC Can-Am series in 2010 to defend series championships in multiple classes. The three rider team remains virtually unchanged for 2010 with Kevin Hudasko and Travis Oswald pulling double duty in the Lites and Unlimited classes. Boyd Brower completes the CGR roster and will compete in the Premiere and Unlimited classes.

Crush Grafix Racing riders swept the top spots in 2009 with Travis Oswald and Boyd Brower finishing first in the Lites and Premiere classes. Oswald also secured a second place series finish in Unlimited with teammates Brower and Hudasko finishing fourth and fifth. CGR's Brower, Oswald, and Hudasko also finished third, fourth, and fifth respectively in the 2009 ENAC Can-Am series.

CGR has partnered with several new sponsors for 2010 including: One Industries, Gaerne, Acerbis, Twin Air, Hinson, EVS and CP Pistons. Returning sponsors include: DNA Energy Drink, Nine One Nine Designs, Rockwell Timekeepers, SMX Optics, Braking, Sunstar, Eleven 10 Mods, Yoshimura, Outlaw Racing Products, Moto Hose and Amadeo Decada. "We would like to thank everyone who's onboard for 2010" stated team principle Drew Stoerrle. "Without their assistance we could not have enjoyed the success we did in 2009."

About Crush Grafix Racing

Crush Grafix Racing was founded in 2008 by team owner Drew Stoerrle. Stoerrle's involvement in supermoto racing began in 2007 while providing design services to the Eastern Supermoto Racing Association. In their first full season (2009), CGR won two out of three pro points championships (Lites and Premiere). CGR's accomplished three rider team is competing in the 2010 ESMRA and ENAC Can - Am supermoto series. Follow CGR online: www.crushgrafixracing.com, www.twitter.com/Team_CGR.
